Water Resources

Glenn Groundwater Authority

The Glenn Groundwater Authority was created by forming a Joint Exercise of Powers Agreement, signed by nine local agencies, with the purposes of being a Groundwater Sustainability Agency for the Glenn County portion of the Colusa Subbasin. A tenth member joined the Glenn Groundwater Authority October 14, 2019.

Glenn Groundwater Authority Member Agencies include:

- City of Orland
- City of Willows
- County of Glenn
- Glenn-Colusa Irrigation District
- Glide Water District
- Kanawha Water District
- Monroeville Water District
- Orland-Artois Water District
- Princeton-Codora-Glenn Irrigation District
- Provident Irrigation District

The notice declaring the Glenn Groundwater Authority's decision to become a Groundwater Sustainability Agency and its intent to manage groundwater within the Glenn County portion of the Colusa Subbasin submitted to the Department of Water Resources (DWR) can be found on the DWR SGMA Portal at:
