

Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta and Suisun Marsh : Map | Projects | Groups | Dashboards

Restoring Ecosystem Integrity in the Northwest Delta: Phase II

Basic Information

Files & Links

Project Map

Habitat Development Curves

 Print Project Factsheet

Status	Completed	County	Solano
Project Type	Non-mitigation	Location	38.25738° N, -121.79265° W Map
Project Area (Acres)	978.0	Last Updated	13 April 2022
Project Abstract	This project proposes to acquire conservation easements within the Cache Slough complex, along the Barker, Lindsey and Calhoun Sloughs, north Delta tidal channels located west of the Yolo Bypass. Project may also benefit tidal brackish marsh habitat, freshwater marsh habitat, and seasonal wetland habitat plant community.
Project Groups	San Francisco Bay Adaptation
Administrative Region	Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta and Suisun Marsh - Rachel Wigginton, SSJDC

Project Identification ²

ID	Type
ERP-02D-P54	CALFED - Project ID
7207354	CALFED - Site ID

Habitat Plan ²

Site Name	Phase	Activity	SubActivities	Habitat	SubHabitat	Acres	Activity Status	Water Regime
Restoring Ecosystem Integrity in the Northwest Delta: Phase II	None	Acquisition/Preservation/Protection	Conservation Easement	Palustrine Wetland	Scrub-shrub Riparian	978.0	Completed

Related Habitat Impacts ²

Sites ²

Name	Status	Acres
Restoring Ecosystem Integrity in the Northwest Delta: Phase II	Completed	978.0

Events ²

Date	Type	Description	Site Name ²
2004-03-01	Project start date

People ²

Type	Name	Organization	Department
No Data

Funding ²

Phase	Activity	Funder	Amount
None	Acquisition/Preservation/Protection	CNRA California Natural Resources Agency	$1,781,658

Related CRAM Assessments ²

Visit Date	Version	Site Name	Wetland Type	Index Score
No Data				