

Sites Project Authority
Sites Reservoir Project
 Record of Communication

Your Name:	Janis Offermann, Horizon Water and Environment
Name of Communicator:
Date:	July 8, 2021
Type of Communication:	Email and telephone
	Follow up emails were sent to tribes who were mailed letters from the Authority on June 15, 2021. Emails were successfully sent to the following tribes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lone Band of Miwok Indians</li> <li>• Shingle Springs Band of Miwok Indians</li> <li>• United Auburn Indian Community of the Auburn Rancheria</li> <li>• Wilton Rancheria</li> <li>•</li> </ul> Emails were unsuccessfully sent to the following tribes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Redding Rancheria</li> <li>• Konkow Valley Band of Maidu</li> </ul> In these instances, the emails were kicked back. No email could be identified for the Wintu Tribe of Northern California on the tribe's website. Phone calls were placed to the following tribes, and messages requesting email addresses were left on an answering machine <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wintu Tribe of Northern California (10:40am)</li> <li>• Redding Rancheria (10:45am)</li> </ul> A phone number for the Konkow Valley Band of Maidu could not be discovered. Return receipts were received for the delivery of the original letter to all of the tribes except for the Wintu Tribe of Northern California. The letter to the Wintu Tribe of Northern California was returned, with a notice saying that there was no mailbox at the address. The address matched the address on the tribe's website.